“Oh LORD, my strength and my fortress, my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come to You from the ends of the earth. . .” (Jeremiah 16:19 NKJV).

Eugene Peterson in his book, “Run with the Horses,” shares the life of Jeremiah. “We are to aim not to live comfortably but to live as deeply and as thoroughly as possible. When we find ourselves in a hard place continue to be determinedly faithful, magnificently courageous, and have a towering life terrifically lived.” We realize this is only possible as we rely upon the Lord Jesus Christ who empowers us to live in obedience to the commands of God with integrity and discipline. May we not be deceived by the falseness of this culture and society but instead look to God to deal with the realities of life, to discover the truth, to create beauty and to act out of love. We are not to waste time waiting for the “perfect” but put our hope in Jesus Christ and live in truth daily as He works in us according to His good pleasure.

We prepare to serve with the Rafiki Foundation, Inc., whose hope and purpose is that each orphan who comes to live in a Rafiki Village, in one of the ten countries of Africa, will become a godly contributor in their country. We find ourselves in a hard place here waiting in the U.S.A. to reach full support when our hearts are in Africa. But difficult as it is, we know God has a plan even in the waiting. We are so thankful to God for the opportunity to be with our son Gene and his wife Tara for the birth of our first grandbaby, Audrey Miranda, on July 23. We praise God for the gift of life—here and in Africa. Our prayer for the children in Africa is the same as our prayer for our little Audrey—that each will come to know Christ in His fullness at an early age and be committed to a growing relationship with Him.

We just received the news that construction is moving forward in Rafiki Village Rwanda. They hope to hire Raifki Mothers by December. It will take about six months to train them in English. The ROS there hope to be ready to accept orphan children in the Village by June. Oh how we pray God will provide for us to be in Rwanda as soon as possible. We thank God for you who so faithfully encourage us through prayer and finances. We ask that those who have not yet done so would prayerfully consider becoming part of our team.

Terrifically living for Him,

Ken and Bev
