"Delight yourself in the LORD and he will give you the desires of your heart"
(Psalm 37:4 NIV).

Dear Family and Friends,

It is with a tremendous joy that I sit to write you this newsletter. God's perfect timing has arrived, and He has given me the desires of my heart. A friend once said that she had seen God place in His peoples' hearts a desire for what He intended to give them. I know that in my case, this is exactly what God has done for me. He intended for me to serve Him by going into Africa to love, teach, and minister to children who are less fortunate. So He gave me that desire. Then, once I got to know and love Patty and Tim Yoss, it became my heart's desire to serve the Lord alongside them. Telling the Lord of this desire, I also told Him that He was my first love and that my biggest desire was to serve Him wherever He sent me. God granted me the desires of my heart.

I will be leaving South Africa on March 6, 2005, (Lord willing) and flying to Uganda where I will meet up with Tim and Patty. Rafiki's plan is that I help out at the village there until our paper work for Rwanda is completed. Tim traveled to Rwanda earlier this month to hand in the applications for our work permits. At this time he also made applications with regards to taxes, etc. Rafiki will only move us into Rwanda once we have received the relevant paper work. Please, will you be praying about that with us? It was not by chance that on Tim's way back to Uganda, he was seated next to a gentleman who was a tax attorney with the revenue services in Rwanda. During the eight-hour bus trip, he was able to obtain much-needed tax information. God has a wonderful way of causing peoples' paths to cross in order to fulfill His purposes.

God has caused our paths to cross, too, yours and mine, to fulfill His purposes. You have been excited with me about what God is doing in Africa and watching the percentage of my financial support needed increase with every passing month. Many of you have e-mailed and encouraged me along the way. There are those of you who have been faithful prayer warriors and those who are also supporting me financially. To each of you I would like to extend a heart-felt THANK YOU. May God bless you for your part in getting me to the mission field and for your continued commitment. And to my family—a big thank you, too, for releasing me into God's hands and being prepared to accept wherever He sends me.

Please note that as from March 6, my e-mail address will be changing to cricket2@mweb.co.za. I will continue to run my current e-mail address until April 1st in order to catch the e-mails that slip through, but after that it will no longer be an active e-mail address. Also, please note my new postal address for Uganda. God Bless you!

Love,

Cricket Meyer
